Is it bad if I put something in the comment section saying I'm new to programming? A: Forget the RAW HTML/HTML5, and check out the HTML5 Boilerplate. This is a boilerplate HTML, CSS, and JavaScript template designed to provide a basic structure and page formatting for any website project. This will help you from start to finish from setting up your server, setting up your text editors, finding HTML, CSS, JavaScript, etc. On a side note, you don't need to edit out any content from comments as the HTML5 spec is designed to display all comments as part of the HTML. If you really don't want to though, you could just paste your text into a separate file and include that within your HTML5 document.
