What's New in Gmittook 3.0.3:

Add support for HTML formatting tags to twitter posts from Gmittook. Add support for naming and formatting different windows (windows) within Gmittook. Fix bug in the layout of how messages appear in some situations. More Info: Azureus

3.12 Build 22 Azureus 3.12.2 will be released in a few hours. For complete information about Azureus, please visit: or read the FAQ at This release includes some changes to logging: - More detailed logging is turned on, so if you are experiencing problems with the tracker (e.g. it hangs up and crashes), you might want to have a look at the log files. -

Logging of trackers will be reduced and only the file transfer, seeding and incoming ports will be logged. - Release log file is now a single.txt file (instead of many.log files). - As a result of the logging changes, the log viewer is also improved and easier to use. You can manually change the logging settings by visiting Preferences->Settings. You can also make your Azureus startup as usual by deleting the azureus.properties-file (by default this is located in C:\Azureus).

Bugfixes: - DHT and WebSeed now work correctly again. - Fixed a memory leak in the DHT client. - Non-OpenSSL WebSeeds should now work as expected. - Fixed a bug in searching for a peer, which allowed the same peer to occur twice on the trackers list. - Fixed a bug in the error dialogs, which allowed window managers to re
