Remember when two rebellious teenage vampires and a disgraced werewolf set out to save a witch, find a home and fall in love? The Catcher in the Rye is a wildly original novel that brims with the raw, emotionally explosive energy of a gothic romance High school senior Holden Caulfield devotes his life to the pursuit of the correct state of being – an exalted negation of all current states of being, full of verbal and emotional fireworks and the stench of weed. Yet there are others who are no less restless in their search. Holden encounters a young man named Nick Carraway on New York's Fifth Avenue, a lovely, mysterious, older boy who may be a vampire and who convinces Holden to go to Europe. Holden and Nick fall in love with a girl named Phoebe, and they set off on a journey that will take them to a cottage outside Paris, where Nick and Phoebe will teach Holden how to kill vampires. Meanwhile, the adult Holden Caulfield, Phoebe, Nick, and the rest of the characters face the restless searching that preoccupies us all, and the novel ends with a boy named D. B. – short for Dorian – who is on his way to Rome, where his quest will lead to a confrontation with Phoebe and a climactic revelation about what it means to be human.
