"It will be difficult to breathe with a raging headache from the fever you have all managed to develop from constantly reading the review comments, but it would be a crime if we didn't try. As a result of the fever, I have opted to skip the game's opening introductory cutscene which frames the strong building. (Most of the scene consists of an extremely long string of text.)" (EpicGamer8838 on Google Play) "I realize that this game is already covered extensively, and that it was inevitable that as the hype grew, the game would become more widely known. However, I am happy to say that the game exceeded my expectations. The graphics are gorgeous, the music is fantastic and the plot is wildly original. (Seriously, it is great!) Even through the headache I still managed to enjoy the game for a few hours before growing bored with it. It had all the right components to be an enjoyable game, so I am extremely happy that it was released."(Kessra on Google Play) "I haven't been playing games for a very long time, and I wasn't planning on starting for some time. The first person combat is super cool. The story is great and very different. The top-down structure of the overworld and dungeons is extremely fun as you sneak your way through the enemy lines. The gameplay makes you want to attack everything you see, but if you try, you won't be able to use your weapons and you'll fall dead. It does take a bit of getting used to. It's a bit of a difficult system and has its glitches, but it manages to work out the bugs and make it fun. Enemies all tend to attack in groups and you'll have to quickly find a place to hide. I never got tired of exploring the overworld and dungeons, as well as the whole story. And that story, it just keeps getting better! The fighting is fast and furious, as is to be expected in a turn-based system. And that's really the only downside I have found. It took me longer to level up, but eventually I got there. It's pretty cool seeing and hearing the animations for your actions, and the controls do feel solid. The graphics are really beautiful. Overall, I feel that this game has a lot of good qualities."(Octodad on Google Play) "Even though I hear a lot of people complain about flaws in the gameplay, I have never had this issue myself. The combat is fun and bff6bb2d33

What's new in Elden Ring:

The Gardens of Equestria were my favorite place in Rainbow Dash's hometown. It wasn't always that way though. Now years have passed since I left and it's become a sore subject for me on so many occasions. After taking Rainbow's wisdom into consideration, I've come to the conclusion that I was a brat who ate all of the produce I wasn't supposed to. "Tomorrow is a new day." Now all I have to do is cope with an impassioned vision of an adorable sunflower. "Fluttershy!" Strongly reminding her that it's not too late to make amends.

"You're totally right, I would have never thought about it like that. In regards to what you said, it's no wonder how things turned out the way they did for me. I'm sorry for scaring you like that!" She smiled at me, and then I hugged her happily. "It's alright. You would never do something like that again, right?" With that, we continued walking and eating for a while, but my thoughts still occupied themselves in my earlier memories. After we ate, I wandered off to the nearest grove where Rainbow Dash told me to wait. While I waited, I made some munchies and pondered the questions that I had had all day long. I often thought that the sunflower was a mysterious force that exists in this world. "Well, about that... I made some munchies. You're being pretty quiet, and I got worried. But if you're not hungry, that's alright; I'll eat the whole bag of smoothies later. Since it's the day after trading, I bought this super smoothie with exotic fruit. I'm pretty sure I can get some free samples somewhere here." The giant basket was full of the most amazing flavors that I ever had in my life: I could have never imagined such exquisite things could exist. The sunflower charm was in the basket I was carrying, which I fished out and placed on the ground. Now it's time to join Fluttershy in her journey to the city! And I'm taking full advantage of her absence. She could be out there somewhere, and it would be nice if she could come back with some extra goodies for me. Otherwise, I can just eat everything that I bought, right? Ah, snack time,
