Astrea: Six-Sided Oracles Features Key:

Innovative card design which gives a totally different feel to the games
2 big question cards at the start which decide what cards the players will start with
2 classic A-K scoring cards,
4 different scoring cards from K thru Q
Each of the 12 SIDE games presents a unique deck mix,
All class games are from the Java Collection of Games Web site.

Dark Cards Completely New Chip Scoring Application

In most Card Scoring Application, you score your hand by counting the number of cards in your hand.

In Dark Cards you score by using a sliding scale which starts out at 100 (10 different levels on the scale) where a hand with ten cards or less can receive a perfect 10.

As a player gets a higher hand, the weighting of the score drops until at the bottom of the scale (0) you must have a full 54 card deck with two cards left to get that 0 point.

Dark Cards Download Links

XML File - Use the Link on your left to download the XML file, you also need to download the JDK file as well from Java Web site. Note that the java file is not included when you download the xml file.

Gecko Viewer Support - This version of the application should work without having to download the XML file. xhtml with the gecko viewer should work without having to download the jai file. for jdk 1.5.0 or higher you need the jai file as well. You can download the jai file from Java Web site.

Convenient store API

The store's API provides a callback mechanism that allows certain actions (for example, a buy() or cancel() method) to be carried out without having to open the browser and fill out a form. This is very convenient when one wants to execute a long-running process to access content from the store. The following diagram shows a typical use of the store's API:

Very Much Dissatisfied. I took my TV from the repair shop and now I can't play, I have been trying for weeks and I don't know what I can do. It is not that the TV is broken, I just need to fix it, but I can't play the game any longer. I searched the internet and found this article but I have no idea how to do anything that is written here. I am a little bit confused so please someone let me know how to get on my TV with the game. I just need to play the game and now I am stuck. I took my TV from the repair shop and now I can't play, I have been trying for weeks and I don't know what I can do. I searched the internet and found this article but I have no idea how to do anything that is written here. I am a little bit confused so please someone let me know how to get on my TV with the game. I just need to play the game and now I am stuck. Click to expand... I have the same problem. I have no idea how to proceed. Anyone knows? Click to expand... Well I know how to change your character's face and hair. I know how to change stuff when you're in a mission and stuff like that. But once I click to "Start Game" from the desktop, I don't know how to continue from there. The first problem is when I enter Tutorial Mode, the screen won't rotate. I tried to change the display properties by going into the properties menu of the desktop, but when I did that, I just went to a blank box that had no options to choose from. So I'm stuck in the tutorial. The second problem is that I'm probably stupid, but I don't know how to do the other stuff. I guess I'll just give up the idea of playing until I find some people in-game who can help me. In that case, can you tell me any solutions? Well I know how to change your character's face and hair. I know how to change stuff when you're in a mission and stuff like that. But once I click to "Start Game" from the desktop, I don't know how to continue from there.

What's new:

Chapter Forty One Hercules prepares for battle The Twelve Olympians and Hades stare at Hercules and Athena in the dream Athena: Our god. You did it, after all. Hercules: Are you waking me up? Athena: Calm yourself. You didn't become an Olympian for nothing, remember? Please. Hercules: What? Athena: Stop. Hercules: I only came here to ask for your help with one person's death. I told your son he can rest easy in his grave. Hades: What more did you ask? Hercules: He said he was having a nightmare. I told him to wake the next god who deserved a chance to live. He was going to say something else. Athena: I did what you asked. I'm going to tell him that you came here. I think he can rest now. Hercules: Are you going to tell him what I said? Athena: Yes. Hercules: But... But my blessing. You have to say something nice. Something nice about me. Hades: What? Hercules: Anything. Say anything. Hades: I need to understand the context of this dream. You said the last god deserved to live? Who was that god? Hercules: I think... I think he will make me stand up, grow to a giant, then force those who have wronged me to share the same fate. Hades: That's... That's the Underworld. Hercules: Hades! What are you doing here? Hades: As you recall, I'm the king of the Underworld. You told me to go back, but I refused. What did you actually want from me? Hercules: I came here for Zeus' s sake. I told him to wake up while he was still dead. But I felt bad afterwards. Hades: Stop being selfish, Hercules. Hercules: I can't. It was something I did years ago. I can't blame myself for something I'm no longer responsible for. Hades: I'm responsible for making sure that those who die into your world will get the best afterlife. I'm sorry I can't give them that.
