To the left and right are shown the indications of the terrain. As indicated by the yellow area below, it's the area where your opponent is shooting. The more exposed you are, the higher the chance of being shot, and the easier you can be shot. The higher up you are, the harder it is to be shot. Once you leave the touch point, you're a sitting duck. Don't give away the advantage of living in a world of cubes. Turn on Auto-Lock to lock your eye-point and burst fire at the touch point to be safe. Also, stay close to safe areas for as long as you can. The longer you stay away, the more vulnerable you are to counter-attacks. This is how you manage to stay out of harms way. If you stay close to the touch point, it's hard for them to hit you. Smart shots are crucial to winning the game. Use the drop down menu to shoot, switch between weapons, and reload. At any time, press Spacebar to switch between weapons and view your surroundings. Play this game like the real thing. After shooting your opponent and being attacked, you'll want to get away as fast as you can. The first thing to do is to find a safe spot near the touch point, and hide out. You'll be safer now. When they find you, you may encounter air drops. You can get these by pressing the down arrow twice to unlock the first-person view, then press "S". You can also find these when you get shot. After finding these, you can unlock and equip them after a few seconds. Show your friend your unique skill and take on this challenge.
