Download this video: MEGA: Youtube: Common Core English Language and Literature Standards (CCELP) The Common Core English Language and Literature Standards (CCELP) promote success for all students in reading, writing, speaking, listening, viewing, and in the full range of learning to create and communicate. These standards stress student and teacher agency and collaboration. The Common Core State Standards were written to increase the literacy proficiency and success of all students in the United States, prepare all students to succeed in college, and improve reading instruction. The standards provide a clear rationale in a question-and-answer format, characterizing purpose and setting forth a common goal to all states.
