American Legion was at the forefront of supporting Hawley The American Legion posts in Hastings sent a large contingent to the celebration of Sarah Hawley's 96th birthday at the Viking Church. Sarah received a program with information and a speech. On display were vignettes of Sarah's life during her years of service as the representative to the American Legion. The program listed her years of service as the wife of Lt. Gov. James W. Smith, the daughter of a local veteran, the assistant representative to the American Legion, and a member of the Military Order of the Purple Heart. At the time of her death, Sarah's family did not have a place to honor her. "In 1936, she was the only person in the nation representing the American Legion in a foreign country,” read the program. Today, the Legion has more than 4.8 million members, representing veterans and their families in a total of 320,000 posts in the United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, the Northern Marianas, American Samoa, the U.S. Minor Outlying Islands and the Pacific Islands. The Legion also has more than 12,000 affiliated posts in the departments 6d1f23a050
