It would appear that most of my problem is in writing the if statements at the top, as the map shows up most of the time, and randomly shows up half the time. It will also show an entirely different image than I would expect, like it is the opposite direction from where I would expect, or something similar. Any help would be greatly appreciated.

A: Replace your code for if else statement with if else if if ($x == 0$) { if ($y == 0$) { // map } if ($y == 1$) { // link } if ($y == 2$) { // map } } Or if your expected case is: if ($x == 0$) { if ($y == 0 || y == 1 || y == 2$) { // map } }

Finally, please avoid using else if if you have 3 or more cases. You can use the ternary operator as ternary operator will look cool to use and will improve the readability of your code.

to a divorce and they were granted a divorce. After that, The Emperor's Crown of the Swiss formed a new band, playing early Modern Jazz together with saxophonist Marcel D'Souza and trumpeter Harm Binggeli, and Bassoonist Riccardo Ceresoli.
