Contabilidad De Costos Carlos Fernando Cuevas

. Inf. Carlos F. Cuevas 4th Edition.Israel, Lebanon and the former U.S. intelligence chief James Clapper are among 50 nations who voted against a U.N. General Assembly resolution condemning Israeli settlements in the West Bank and East Jerusalem. The United States abstained from Monday's vote. In a statement, the U.S. Mission to the United Nations said it was against the resolution because it casts "blame" for Middle East peace. It said the United States "strongly supports" negotiations for a two-state solution to the conflict. The resolution would have targeted Israel for what it calls "persistent violations" of international law. "I will always fight to defend the borders of the State of Israel," he said. "But this resolution is fundamentally biased against us. It takes sides with the Palestinian Authority against Israel." The United States is among the only two countries that have never recognized Jerusalem as Israel's capital, citing concerns over how it would change the status of the holy city for Jews, Muslims and Christians. Israel captured the area in a 1967 war and has annexed it. Israel's Ambassador to the United Nations Danny Danon called the resolution "shameful" and said its adoption threatens Israel's security. He said the United States and other countries that abstained are "complicit" in Palestinian incitement against Israel. In a series of tweets, Danon praised Israel's embassy in Jerusalem. He also expressed "sorrow" over the deterioration of U.S.-Israeli relations.
