Brainy Quote But if we are to say that man must by nature be a political animal, we must admit, at the same time, that he requires political restraint to preserve him from being that animal. And yet if this be true, it is of very little importance whether our social state be best preserved by the Dictatorship of the Proportionality of Each One's Share, or the Dictatorship of the Masses; whether the equilibrium of distributions and the equilibrium of forces be kept up by the power of the centralization of decision or by the power of the decentralization of decision; whether all disputes be settled by the direct or by the indirect modes; whether the decisions of the Majority or of the Minority rule the public mind; whether the power of Education be entrusted to The Legislature, The Universities, or To The People. If the final result of the alteration of habits depends upon the manner of giving up our private property, it is more important to know in what proportion he who gives it up will be recompensed, than it is to know in what proportion a given number of individuals shall be called to contribute. (A Comment on Proposition 8 in this work) (From Essays, By John Stuart Mill)

Thank you for the data on recommended botanical treatments. Ive been suffering with hormonal problems, some medication have caused me to gain weight easily, including birth control pills. I use a natural alternative to the pill - that I dont want to tell anyone about. Some days its great, but lately Im having the issue where I am super bloated, and short tempered. Aromatherapy is a great complement for me, but Ive heard its no good for pregnancy. 5ec8ef588b
