How to fix one of the most common.Asylum seekers from the Horn of Africa are primarily seeking refugee status in Europe, with Bangladesh and Pakistan in Asia. Australia is the only country in Oceania. There have been more than 600,000 refugee arrivals worldwide, with most asylum seekers originating in Iraq and Afghanistan. The United States has so far protected just a tiny fraction of the world's refugees, with 748 asylum seekers protected in 2017. The UN's refugee agency says the numbers for 2017 are historically high, but "they are for a good reason". The U.N. agency says that the crisis is worsening because of escalating military conflicts in Syria and Yemen. More than 60 percent of the world's refugees come from just Syria, Iraq, Afghanistan and Pakistan. The UN says over half of the refugees globally are children. Meeting
